DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 15 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 15, line 1, "the ordered pair" lacks a proper antecedent basis to claim 13.

"Ordered pair" is first recited in claim 14, rather than claim 13.

Claim Objections

3. Claim 21 is objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim 21 is directed to a "machine readable medium encoded with machine readable instructions" which is inappropriate language when directed to a computer program since a "machine" is not synonymous to a "computer." Appropriate correction is required.

Examples of acceptable language in computer-processing related claims :

1. "computer readable medium" encoded with _____
 - [a] "a computer program"
 - [b] "software"
 - [c] "computer executable instructions"
 - [d] "instructions capable of being executed by a computer"
2. "a computer readable medium" _____ "computer program"
 - [a] storing a
 - [b] embodied with a
 - [c] encoded with a
 - [d] having a stored
 - [e] having an encoded

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-14 and 17-20 are allowed.

Art Unit: 2616

5. Claims 15 and 16 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:
Barnhart et al. (US 5912892 A) teach a different numbering system for virtual paths and circuits.
